"TYPICAL DORM LIFE"

Getting some last-minute reading done.

"Hey, wake up! We forgot something!"

"... and God bless Mr. Weber and Judson. Amen."

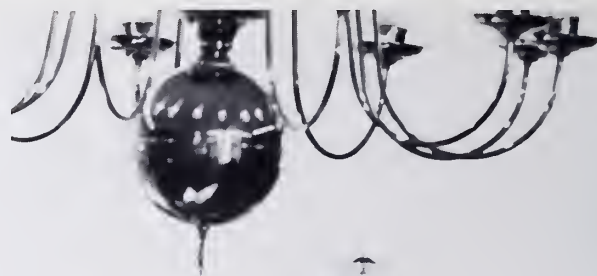

Every year, Judson finds that more and more good entertainment can be found right here on campus. The 79-80 year proved to be no exception; in fact, it was the biggest year yet!

GET READY. After the next page you are committed. But don't be afraid . . . you've been through it all before . . .

Welcome back from a summer of great times, fast food, and the freedom of doing your own thing. 1) You better get used to the paperwork, you're going to see a lot of it! 2) Remember the rule: "If you can't tell what it is, . . ." 3) Easy Rider and his two sidekicks solve the gas shortage, but find more trouble with a couple of amorous horses. 4) A "typical" class scene we can all look forward to. 5) "Dear Mom, I can't take it any more. I want to come home. UGH!"

This is it: Where the whole process begins. We go through it every year but it's always a shock.

1) It says right here, 'Take him for everything he's got.' 2) A picture of frustration. 3) "HELP!" 4) Hi, beautiful — No, not you, Juan! 5) There was this traveling salesman . . . 6) They don't know what they're in for. 8) Ready for the rush. 9) Let's get comfortable. 10) "What do you mean, you don't have any money?"

What builds character? Nothing does it like the Freshman Initiation Process, which evolved from ancient torture practices the upperclassmen had to go through when they were freshmen.

1) The upperclassmen passover sign. 2) Tee hee hee, we sure are having some fun now! 3) Have mercy on me, a poor miserable freshman. 4) "All right, seventeen laps around the campus!" 5) And I thought we had to act like adults in college. 6) Now stand like that for 24 hours and we'll have a statue. 7) "We're looking for two guys who share our deep affection for good old planet Earth."

The Freshmen showed their versatility on the stage and provided entertainment for the upperclass, just to prove there were no hard feelings.

1) If you forget the words, just say 'watermelon.' 2) The Freshmen's answer to Abbott and Costello — it was the wrong answer. 3) Now I'll just turn on this record player . . . 4) All right, who unplugged the microphone? 5) O.K. So I'm not Frank Sinatra! 6) What happened to those stupid balls? 7) Announcing the winner of a date with Tom Caldwell. Lucky girl, whoever she is.

Loser of the float contest.

HAPPYTRAILS HOMECOMING

"Happy Trails to You" was the theme for this year's homecoming, which featured a revival to the parade and its accompanying floats and clowns. Even the Saturday Morning Club kids took part in the fun.

"Look, everybody! Before we fall over!"

KNEELING: Ken Barger, Greg Heisel, Daniel Haile, Tom LaHut, Joel Anderson, Doug Ness. SITTING: Jim VanWyhen, Tesfaye Tewolde, Steve Haring, Mark Irving, Roger Fiorito, Alex Alenis.

The Judson College Soccer team finished with a respectable overall record of 8-7-1, but was disappointed with their conference slate of 2-6. Individual efforts were led by Ken Barger with 18 points, Jim Berning with 13 goals, and Tesfaye Tewolde with 8 goals.

SOCCER HIGHLIGHTS

"O.K. guys — kill 'em! But remember we're Christians."

"Would you look at that, the ball went down his throat!"

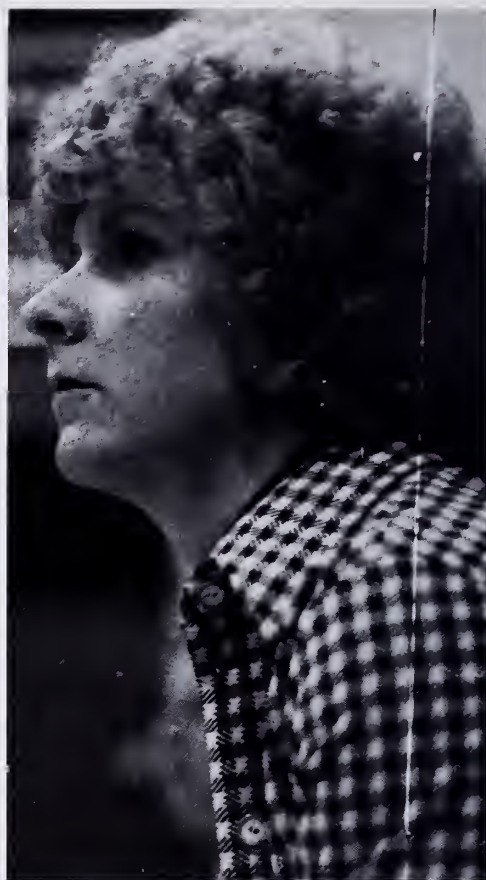

"That will teach you to get in my way."

This just wasn't Roger's game.

Although putting together a strong group of individuals, the team fell short in many close games to compile a disappointing 6-13 record.

The Judson Cross Country squad had a respectable season, finishing third in the conference (NIIC), sixth in the district (NAIA #20), and twelfth nationally (NCCAA).

INTRAMURAL FOOTBALL

Intramurals proved not only to be a source of pleasant diversion, but also an outlet for everyone's frustrations. Lacking none of the skills of their intercollegiate counterparts, the Volkman "Odd Numbers" took the championship.

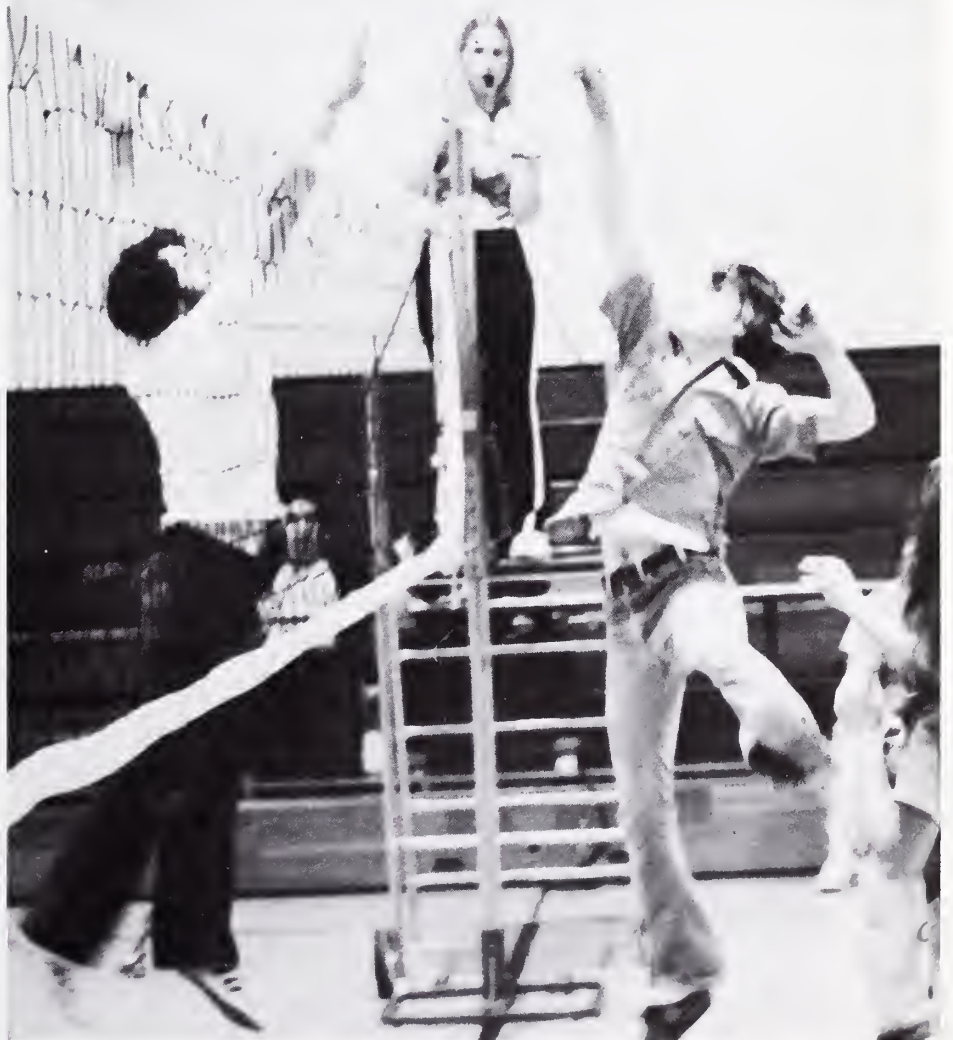

I-M VOLLEYBALL

Drawing crowds rivaling the Women's volleyball team, I-M Volleyball featured high spikes and diving saves. The eventual champion, the Faculty, used none of these but still managed to win.

IN FRISBEE GOLF: John Yeatman became the school's first champ. IN TENNIS: Kevin Comfort beat the field to win the crown.

Winter Tri — Not much snow, but we can get used to that, can't we? Still, winter can be fun — the spirit of Christmas, snuggling up to warm things (like blankets — don't get any ideas), and — of course — Basketball Fever. There's more basketball in here than in Sports Illustrated. But we hope you enjoy the great photography, and relive some happy moments that would otherwise slip away so soon.

HALF-WAYTHERE — WINTERTRI

SPECIALLY FOR SHEPHERDS

A musical play, organized entirely by students, featuring the birth of Christ, interpreted in song. The cast included Doug Snively, Carl Kohn, Pete Lundberg, Betty Jean Scott, Janece Ledbetter, Mark Spencer, Faith Aielts, Kathy Cochrum, Jim Walden, Connie Castlebury, and Kevin Green. Directed by Bill Lowe.

Little Sibs Weekend and the Evangelism Conference bring visitors and entertainment to Judson College.

LITTLE SIBS WEEKEND — EVANGELISM CONFERENCE

Paul Clark and Friends entertain the Sibs.

Andi Simmons with Lil' Sibs.

Dianne Montonerra displays some talent for the kiddies.

Friends of Jesus hold the attention of their high school and college audience.

Dr. Myhrman, using the old "I like you" psychology, which has never worked with donkeys.

Spencer shares one of his many anecdotes with this donkey, who rolls on the floor with laughter.

The cheerleaders get into the act, no matter who — or what — is playing.

Some were convinced this was a rodeo.

What has six legs and plays basketball?

One of the biggest events of the year was the Donkey Basketball game which featured a tournament-style contest between Freshmen, Middlers, Seniors, and members of the Faculty and Staff. The Seniors won, proving once and for all that they are the most experienced at sitting on their donkeys.

DONKEYBALL

Sometimes the opposition proved to be your own teammate.

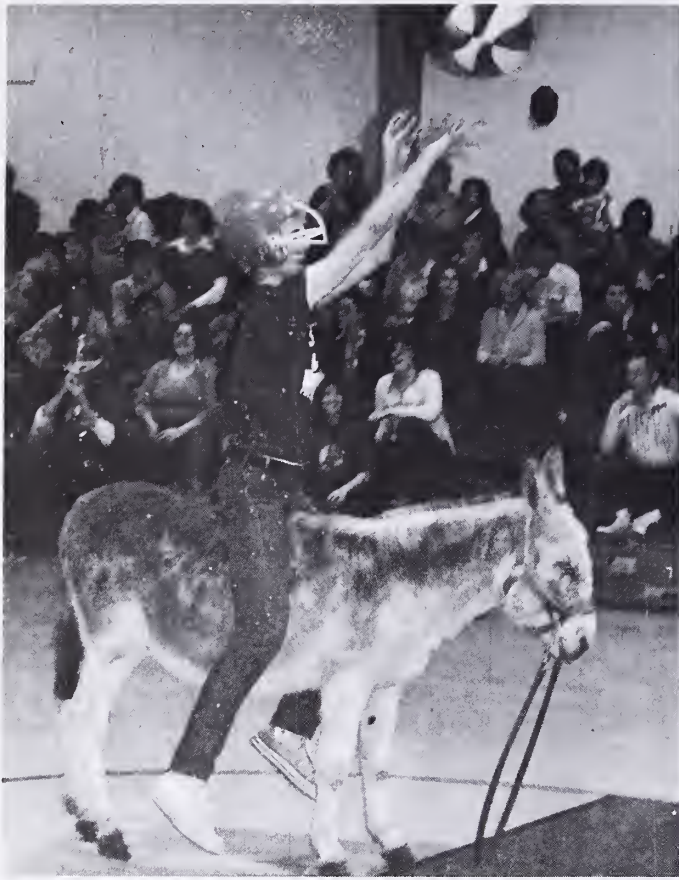

Byron leads the "Slow Break" with Pam tailing.

This isn't the end. There's more on the next page

The faculty-staff bench, featuring Sheik Rainbow.

Jim Walden's shot doesn't exactly excite his donkey.

Ed Gelasi looks right at home taking this shot.

Nate finds out the hard way the difference between regular basketball and Donkeyball.

The Donkey takes an early bow, unfortunately for this rider.

The championship game brings out the worst in some people.

MORE DONKEYBALL

Laurie Hinch watches the action through a troublesome football helmet.

Kraig Kleeman hands the ball to Fred Johnson.

Dr. Besancon doesn't want to be left out of an important play.

Somebody has to do the dirty work.

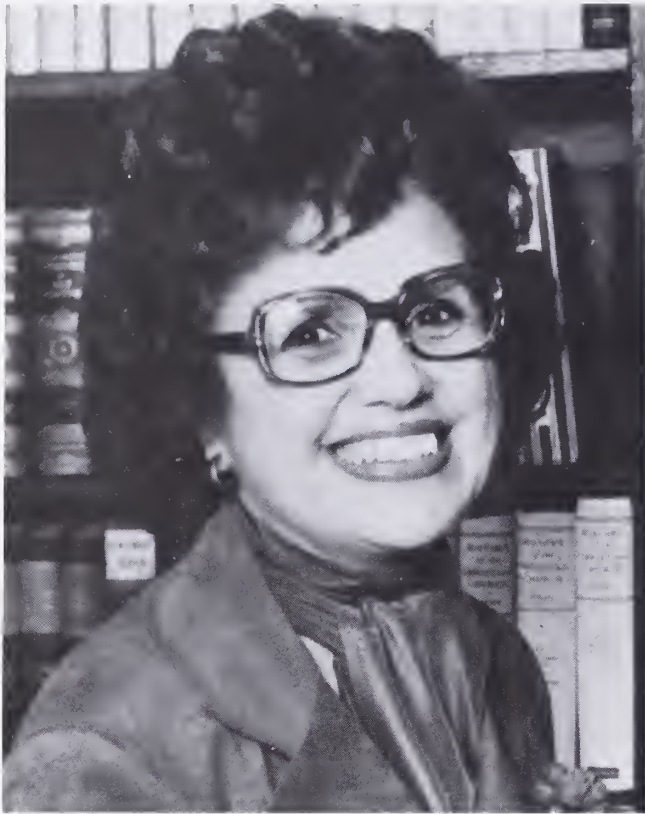

The celebration of Christmas took on many different forms, including the choir's Christmas concert (Hodie, by Ralph Vaughn Williams) and the Eyrie decorating party, which drew a small but hardworking crowd.

CHRISTMAS

YES! I AM EVELYN CHRISTIANSON!

Prayer was the main topic for Spiritual Enrichment Week, with Mrs. Christianson joining classes and prayer groups to revitalize the power of prayer.

SPIRITUAL ENRICHMENT WEEK

BLOOD DRIVE

The Blood Drives serve to replenish the blood supply of the Elgin-Aurora area. It is also the source of much discomfort, although most certainly unfounded — by the expression of Joel's face at right.

Afterwards, cookies and juice are served to the donors.

It's me or that pup — take your pick!

So my "powerful stomach" hangs over my belt, what about it?!

Who put starch in my underwear?

Oh, if only I could afford a tailor.

Yes, I've done other plays.

Did you just see her take a breath?

Which one do I shoot first?

You mean those people actually paid to see this?

MMM. Beans again!

Payday is cancelled.

Hey, everybody! Give Candy a hand!

I think I squished him!

The Judson Varsity Basketball team plenty of excitement with a winning record and exceptional players.

BASKETBALL

Larry Bennerman was a prime reason for the success of the Eagles. His passing was unstoppable.

I'm taking that ball! Don't you know who I am?

Hey! Set it up or I shoot it from here!

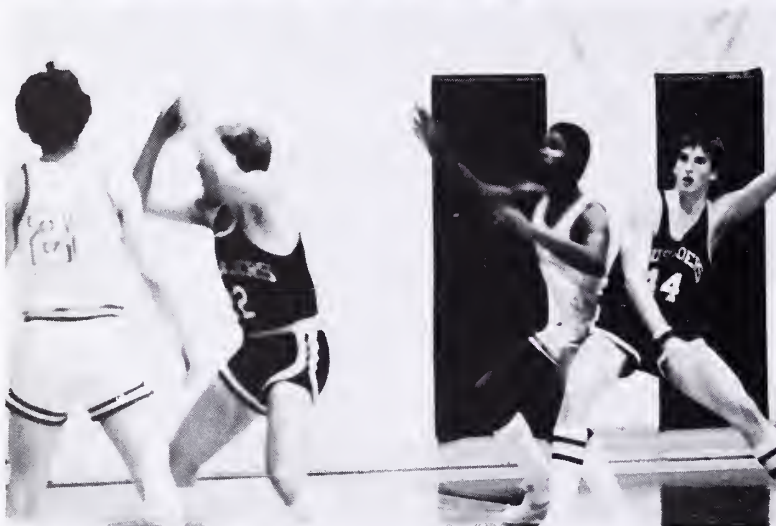

O.K. Guys. I know this is just the beginning of the game, but we're going into a stall!

You can't stop them all.

Larry displays some magic.

JUDSON BASKETBALL

The team relaxes at Green Lake before the season begins.

The 1979-80 Eaglettes: STANDING: Coach Floyd, Sandy Hancock, Andrea Simmons, Glynda Rice, Charity Adams, Susan Tripp, Assistant Coach Logsdon. KNEELING: Eileen Gammell, Sandra Melendez. SITTING: Terry Skorik, Carolyn Mair, Jane Johnson, Mary Hays.

We've got to stop meeting like this!

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Eileen Gammell zeroes in on the rim.

Mary Hays breaks the press.

A mixture of experienced veterans and untried rookies made for some exciting basketball, although the victories were hard to come by. This relatively young team has all its better games ahead.

Terry starts her move.

Please! I can do it myself!

An Easy Two Points.

POM PONS MEAN MORE SPIRIT

Beginning the year with a terrific burst of enthusiastic energy, the 79-80 pom pon squad worked creative miracles with all-new routines that incorporated everything from lights to Christmas packages. The reponse from the fans was no less enthusiastic than the energy the Pom Pon Squad created.

STANDING: Julie Schindler, Judy Hvorka, Pam Tobias, and Tina Wilson. KNEELING: Cheryl Black, Linda Strange, Val Bach, and Selina Shultz.

✓ The 79-80 Cheerleaders proved to be an integral part of the exciting basketball season. Always setting out to show that the Eagles were the GREATEST, and in the process revealing that they had as big a heart as the guys playing on the floor.

CHEERLEADERS

Even if the basketball team was losing, the Pep Band could do no wrong. Always ready to pick up the crowd's spirits with lively brass and a heavy percussion.

Isn't Judson Strain cute?

In some cases, nothing helps.

Women's League for Democratic Action.

"One . . . two . . . three . . . Ahhhh-sooooo!"

"Just a country girl like me."

Maybe we should get a station wagon.

Hear no evil, speak no evil, see no evil, forget it!

TEAHOUSE OF THE AUGUST MOON

"Rotsa ruck, ferra!"

A delightful comedy set during the occupation of Japan after World War II, focusing on the highlights and pratfalls of Captain Frisby and his sidekick, Sakini. With the intentions of building a school, Frisby buckles under the villagers craving for a teahouse, and the charms of geisha-girl Lotus Flower.

Perfect for my midget canary!

What military life should be.

Another happy ending at Judson College.

Jodie Anderson is named recipient of the Student Senate Service Award.

GRADUATION

Dr. Besancon opens with a flute solo.

"Don't look at the guy with the camera!"

Commencement speakers: Rev. Thomas and Nate Adams.

A real "first-class" graduate.

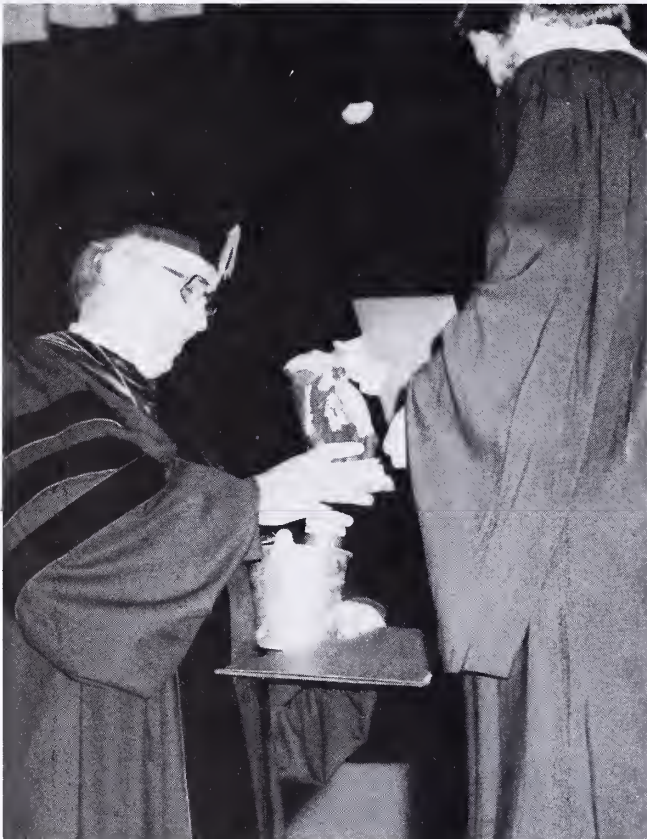

Roger says, "This is better than getting married!"

This year's commencement exercise was interesting, and so was the actual graduation. Speakers Mr. and Mr. Adams gave the audience an enjoyable "life history" of their father/son relationship.

Senior class president Jeff Cooper presents Mr. Weber with the class gift.

"A bucket and a bag of Tootsie Rolls? Does this mean the seniors won't do something cute, like hand them to me one-by-one?"

Other highlights of Commencement were the display of the latest styles of hats for a graduation ceremony; and the choking presentation of the class gift, three benches to be placed on different parts of the campus (Anyone would choke giving a gift like that). Undaunted, president Weber accepted them graciously.

An Honorary Doctorate is awarded to E. Alexander Lambert.

"Getting those benches as a Senior Class Gift was just what we needed to keep the next generation of Judson students happy."

These graduation ceremonies are so exciteee . . . zzzzzzzzz!

Three of the younger students wait patiently for their diplomas.

Mark Wilson wins the "Mr. Marlboro" contest, being the 1100th student to get a degree at Judson in a cowboy hat.

"Keith, since you are getting married tomorrow, I would like to present you with this gift, a coupon good for one free semester in Prof. Hsieh's 'Marriage and the Family' course."

LANTERN LAMPLIGHTER

Doug Wynn, Lamplighter Photographer.

This year has been a fun but frustrating one for Judson's two publications, the Lantern and the Lamplighter. Both were plagued with non-involvement, and deadlines were barely met — or forgotten altogether. But, next year brings optimism and hope for both publications. There were others that worked on the Lantern and Lamplighter, and we appreciate all of their help.

As Editor of this yearbook, I would like to say "thank you" to everyone who has been a part of my life at Judson College. I thought I would sneak that in, Bye!
